

2021 Emerging Leader of the Year

The Emerging Leader of the Year Award (formerly Woman Business Leader of Tomorrow) is designed to honor a female professional in the early stages of her career. The honoree should exhibit leadership skills, a commitment to professional growth and contribute positively to her team and/or organization. This individual should be hard-working, passionate and eager to learn. Nominee must be a member of the Rockford Chamber of Commerce.

To be considered for this honor, an individual must be within ten years of starting her full-time professional work. (Work does not need to be consecutive in years, roles or organizations.)

The award will be presented at the Women in Business Luncheon as part of Pow(H)er on Thursday, October 28, 2021 at Embassy Suites and/or virtually.

Entry Process

- 1) May be self-nominated or nominated by another person
- 2) Prepare a written submission that addresses the following:
  - Start With Why
It's often said less is more. In a quick 250 word summary, share why your nominee should be named Emerging Leader of Year.
  - Leadership Skills
Describe the nominee's skills as a leader, both formally and informally. What makes her an outstanding woman to follow? In what ways do others look to her for guidance and leadership? What leadership skills will contribute to her future success?
  - Professional Growth
In what ways does the nominee continually strive for professional growth? How does this candidate continually learn & grow? What sort of career trajectory & organizational impact potential does the candidate potentially have?
  - Contributions to Team/Organization
Describe the candidate's contributions to her organization or team's success.
- 3) Letters of recommendation will be accepted & considered but are not required.
- 4) Nomination must include the candidate's name, place of work, title, email address and phone number.

Once you have finalized your submission, please return (email preferred) to:
