

Leadership Rockford 2019-2020 Scholarship Application

The mission of Leadership Rockford is to enhance awareness of business, government and civic issues and opportunities, through an interactive process, and to motivate direct involvement in business and community leadership.

Class members meet two or three times a month from 8:00 to 10:30 a.m. for panel and group discussions followed by business and community tours. Each session is designed to introduce participants to specific and deliberate aspects of the community through engagement with community and industrial leaders. A high level of interaction is vital to each session. In order to graduate from the program, a participant must attend 80 percent of the class sessions. The program requires a serious commitment from both participants and their employers or sponsors. In order to graduate from the program, a participant must attend 80 percent of the class sessions and complete the group project.

Participants can expect that success fulfillment of requirements will allow for:

- Access to key leaders and decision makers in the Rockford area
- A holistic understanding of the intricate workings of the Rockford
- Dynamic and significant interaction with fellow leaders as well as those firmly established in positions of influence in our region
- Encouragement and motivation for direct involvement in business and community leadership

These are all integral components of the Leadership Rockford Program (formerly known as CAP).
